THIRTY-SECOND YEAR NO. 44

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, NOVEMBER 5, 1909

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

LOCAL ELECTION WAS QUIET.

The local election was orderly and quiet, the only contest on the municipal ticket being for marshal.

Of the 282 votes polled in the corporation J. H. Andrews received 172 showing that he ran about 100 votes behind. In the contest for marshal James Bailey, Independent, received 113 while H. A. McLean, Republican, received 129, the latter majority being 17. Bailey made a remarkable showing from the fact that he was the only man on the Independent ticket.

The council Dr. J. O. Stewart, J. W. Pollock, B. E. McFarland, G. A. Shroeder, G. A. Irvine, J. P. Caldwell, I. E. Puffer, assessor for personal property, J. E. Pierce for real estate, J. C. Barber, treasurer, H. R. Kitchcock, clerk.

The nominees for trustees had no opposition and are A. H. Crowell, J. C. Townsend and W. W. St. John. J. R. Cooper, treasurer, F. A. Jackson, clerk, Constables John Ross and W. R. Konnon.

Although there were only two names printed on the township school board ticket, N. L. Ramsey and J. H. Stormont, there were several names written by the voters and of this number J. E. Turnbull received the most and will be declared the third man. He is a member of the present board but did not desire re-election.

JAMESTOWN—The election was bitterly contested there being four tickets in the field. The Republican nominees were also on a Citizen's ticket to confuse voters against the People's ticket, supported by the Law and Order League, W. W. Barnett, the Taylor candidate for mayor was re-elected despite the opposition of the temperance people. The full Republican ticket was elected except for township clerk, Orin Chip being defeated by a Democrat who had the support of the Taylor-Lewis forces.

OSBORN—All the Republicans were elected in Osborn except one in the village council which was a Democrat. A hot fight was made for school board but the old members were re-elected.

YELLOW SPRINGS—With a three cornered fight for mayor, Charles Ridgway, father of the Cedarville druggist by the same name was elected mayor on the Republican ticket by nine votes. Oster, Democrat, was second, and Hartley, Independent Republican, third. Ridgway was also a candidate for school board but is said to have been defeated by the women. Tom Carlisle, C. H. Ellis and David Hill were elected.

CLINTON—A. H. Ellis, Independent, headed the ticket for mayor and won without opposition. There was no other ticket.

BELLBROOK—Clover Watson, Democrat, present mayor was re-elected by a small majority over A. R. Horton, Independent.

BOWERSVILLE—C. A. Ervin was elected mayor on the Independent ticket. The only other contest was over school board.

FAIRFIELD—Mayor O. A. Wilson will hold over as there were no candidates for this place. There was no opposition for the other offices.

SPRING VALLEY—W. V. Luce, was elected mayor by a majority of eleven over K. E. Randall, Republican. The city is about evenly divided politically with the Democrats the most frequent winners.

XENIA—Wm. Dadds, Republican defeated Wm. Brennan, Independent, for mayor by 129 votes while the latter beat Neeld, Democrat, 91 votes. The contest was spirited the two days previous to the election and those versed in political affairs predicted Dadds' victory. The division among Mayor Brennan's friends after he withdrew from the primary made him an uncertain factor in the race. The city officers and council will be Republican, except one member, a Democrat, Wm. Groffendick, who was up for re-election. Jacob Kany led the vote for school board with Dr. Messenger and Postmaster Orr following closely.

SPRINGFIELD—The wet and dry issues resulted in Ex-Mayor Rowles being elected for a third time. Four years ago he was defeated for a third term. His majority was over 1,000 and carried the balance of his ticket also.

FIGHT FOR SCHOOL BOARD.

The Andrew-Ridgway slate for school board was smashed Tuesday in the battle of ballots. Their efforts at the last centered on H. C. Wright and the other candidates dropped. With some five or six workers and the liberal use of money the gang only managed to land Wright by 10 votes. This was proven in the count when Wright received thirty "plumpers", ballots with only a mark opposite his name when there were three to elect. This was done to make him run ahead after the fight had been made against him. In making such a fight a board was chosen that will care for the public's interest. Hereafter teachers have been passed upon in the druggists caucus and the slate then taken into the board meeting. John W. Johnson and H. A. Turnbull were the other winners. Had it not been for the purchased vote for Wright, L. H. Sullenger would have been the third member of the board. The following is the vote:

S. C. Wright 104
J. W. Johnson 178
H. A. Turnbull 171
L. H. Sullenger 108
T. N. Tarbox 108
F. A. Jurkat 82
T. J. Fitch 83

Bond Issue Approved.

A bond issue for $25,000 to erect a new Children's Home in this county carried strong, the vote being almost two to one. The local vote was as follows: Township, yes, 88; No, 55. Corporation, yes, 172; No, 59.

THEATRE NOTES.

Mrs. Fiske, one of the greatest living actresses, appears at the Fairbanks Theatre, Monday, November 8th, with her extravagantly commended production of "Salvation Nell." It is doubtful if any announcement during the whole of the dramatic year will create more interest or be more eagerly welcomed, for in Springfield as in New York and everywhere else, Mrs. Fiske's commanding position as the foremost dramatic artist before the American public, is generally recognized. Her new play was produced in New York last season and after a sensational successful run of some twenty weeks she presented it in the principal cities, later embarking on a continuous tour which continued until August last and was by far the most successful in her experience. "Salvation Nell" is a story of New York's underworld and is perhaps the most graphic and photographic representation of its conditions, surroundings, intimate daily life and psychology that has ever been given a stage portrayal.

Every element that makes for greatness and popularity in a play is embodied in Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full" which will be at the Fairbanks theatre, November 10th. "Paid in Full" more than any other play of today, elicits the sympathy of an audience. The story of Joe Brooks and his young wife, Emma, their struggle to get along on $18 a week, the weakness that leads a man to theft, the cowardice that makes him attempt to use his wife as a means for his own escape—all so true to what is taking place about us—that it might be happening right here at this hour. Vigor, veracity and driving power, heart and understanding of every person who sees it. Its moments are moments of life. The coming of the play has a greater claim on all theatre patrons from the fact that it will be presented by a brilliant New York cast, direct from the Astor Theatre and the third year for "Paid in Full" on Broadway.

At the Fairbanks Theatre on Monday, November 8th, will be presented a new play, "Your Humble Servant." Mr. Skinner in this piece assumes the role of a wandering player who meets the tragedy of his life with the utmost grace and humor at every turn. Those who recall Mr. Skinner's impersonation in "The Honor of the Family" will see at once the many opportunities for him in this new character. Also those who recall Mr. Tarkington's "The Man from Home" will observe at once how perfectly they are able to supply Mr. Skinner with a satisfactory vehicle. This production is remarkable in many ways while at the same time it affords Mr. Skinner the opportunity to impersonate a character combining both the comedy and romantic atmosphere in which he revels. The production is being made by Charles Frohman and every detail has been furnished to the utmost.

The sensational musical comedy, "The Girl from Rector's" will be offered at the Fairbanks theatre, Friday evening, November 12. The piece had an uninterrupted run at Weber's Music Hall, New York, for seven months and played to the biggest business in the history of the house. Critics declare it one of the few productions of its sort ever made that carries with it a high-class plot and still contains a laugh in every line of the dialogue. Paul M. Potter, the author of the work, was also responsible for "Trilby" and other stage successes. The story of "The Girl" is that of a society girl of Battle Creek, Mich., who is interested in every charity there. For recreation however, she comes to New York and through occasional visits to Rector's earns the title. When she returns suddenly to her home she finds many of her metropolitan friends there, and entanglements ensue which are not explained until just before the fall of the curtain before the last act.

MEETING OF THE W. C. T. U.

The Cedarville Women's Christian Temperance Union met in their hall Friday, October 29th with a splendid attendance.

Miss Mary Ervin gave in her report from the State Convention which was held in Toledo, October 8-17. She reported 588 voting delegates at the Convention. Greene county led in the size of the delegation, being 25 from this county. She gave us Greene county's yell which was as follows: "Who are we? This easily seen. We represent every fifth woman in Greene. Our motto—All at it and at it all day. To interest the people and keep them that way." Special mention was made of Greene county in Flower Mission work. This county was also first in the number of lunches put out. The county now has 1016 members. The State numbers 32028 a gain of 2189 members this year. $12048.45 was raised by the Unions in the state for campaign purposes and other work outside of dues and regular department work.

Miss Ervin spoke of the address delivered by Hon. Seaborn Wright of Georgia. His subject "The Spirit of Anarchy" dealt entirely with law enforcement. His address was received with enthusiasm. After the report a social hour was enjoyed. The losing side in the contest for points served refreshments.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and outworn system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have much faith in its curative powers, and they offer one hundred dollars reward for each case of Catarrh cured by this cure. Send for free literature.

Wisterman & Pharmacy

The following is from George F. Williams, Clerk at Cairo's Pharmacy, New Orleans, La.

"Not once did I have to cut the price on any A. D. S. preparation, my principal argument being that the A. D. S. avoided expensive advertising and traveling salesman's expenses and put the best of everything into their preparations, making them so far superior to competitive patent medicines as to make them incomparable. Another argument is that A. D. S. preparations are much stronger, the doses smaller, making them outlast any patent. Therefore cheaper, aside from superiority in quality. I have always pleased my customers, as well as my employees, by selling A. D. S. goods. Therefore I am very deeply interested in A. D. S."

I. Wisterman.

The Democratic nominees, Marshall had the united support of the Anti-Saloon League and detectives were employed to stop the purchase of votes. It is predicted that Franklin county will now have a Rose county local option election.

DAYTON—Mayor E. E. Burkhardt was re-elected on the Democrat ticket by about 5,000, the usual Republican majority. The wet and dry and gas rates were the only issues and it seems that the wets and gas company won easy.

CINCINNATI—Dr. Schwab, a prominent physician was elected mayor by 7,500 over Peck, Democrat, pulling the full Republican ticket to victory. Both candidates are for "personal liberty."

CLEVELAND—Tom Johnson ran once too often for mayor even though he has filled four terms. Herman Beahr, Republican, and nominees were all elected except for a city solicitor.

Mr. S. L. Sterrett of Seattle, Wash., arrived here Thursday and will remain until Monday with his parents. Mr. Sterrett came East to Columbus with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Scott, who has been quite ill.

Charles Harris Badly Injured.

Mr. Charles Harris, who is employed as brakeman in the Xenia yards had one of his feet badly injured about five o'clock Tuesday evening while making a coupling. He was in the act of kicking a coupling with his foot.

Dr. S. S. Wilson dressed the injury and it is not thought that he will be a cripple or lose the foot unless blood poison should set in.

FOR SALE—A cement block machine and moulds for several kinds of work. Also house moving outfit, pulleys, ropes, etc. Apply to A. D. Townsley.

WON; YET LOST.

A new scheme to purchase votes was adopted Tuesday when the Andrew-Ridgway gang purchased votes for Judas Wright for schoolboard by placing a quarter in a banana, to hand the voter and thus avoid detection.

It was necessary for the gang to elect three members to get control of the schools, but seeing the fight too hot, dropped two on the slate and devoted their money and energy to Wright alone.

This was done to keep him in the lead on the count for the county organization refused to recognize his recommendations for judges in this precinct. Again it was known that the Minnie Hamilton story would be injurious and this had to be overcome. The quarters paid were for plumbers and the count revealed about thirty, just enough to keep in the lead. The gang was certain when the polls closed that Wright would be from 50 to 100 in the lead. All they had to go on was the amount of money even had a worker, running on their merits. The gang member will be the only representative the drugstore has in the board.

When the organization turned down Wright's recommendations J. H. Andrew, T. B. Andrew, C. M. Ridgway and the gang committeeman himself went to Xenia to appeal for recognition but their words fell on deaf ears. The Xenia people have cut loose from the drugstore crowd.

Much of the opposition to the county organization has been due to the work of the Andrew-Ridgway crowd. It is said that the Xenia people were continually being asked to interfere with the courts in liquor cases and stand for graft money being demanded from certain persons who held good appointive positions.

A BAPTIST ELDER

Restored to Health by Vinol

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength and am now feeling unusually well." Henry Cunningham, Elder Baptist Church, Kingston, N. C.

Vinol is not a patent medicine—but a preparation composed of the medicinal elements of cod's liver, combined with a tonic iron and wine. Vinol creates a hearty appetite, tones up the organs of digestion and makes rich, red blood. In this natural manner, Vinol creates strength for the run-down, overworked and debilitated, and for delicate children and old people. For chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis Vinol is unequalled.

All such persons in this vicinity are asked to try Vinol on our offer to refund their money if it fails to give satisfaction.

A BATTLE ROYAL.

Moose Fight for the Championship of the Wilderness

An hour, it seemed, the two moose had battled, neither appearing to gain a point of advantage. Their sides showed red gashes from the savage ripping of horn points. Their eyes were reddened, and there was crimson in the flecks of froth that flew from their nostrils. The bog was churned into a black slough of muck beneath them. The first streaks of dawn were showing when—was it fate, luck or the better strategy of the newcomer?—the advantage of position was taken from Bilhorn's slug.

Now the newcomer could stand off a locomotive. He could even recover a measure of his wind, while his opponent must continue to weaken. And the effect soon told. Suddenly he seemed to gather himself together and bring all his great force of bone and muscle into one grand, herculean effort, and Bilhorn's bull slipped backward. His adversary was actually forcing him back, and all back with him, the spongy mass soughing up behind his helpless haunches. This was a dangerous turn in the fray. He realized it and struggled to gain a footing somewhere, anywhere, but there was nothing to hold to. Back, back, he settled on his haunches, until he was driven squarely over on his broad side, hopelessly out of action, terribly at the mercy of his foe, who horned him brutally again and again until sheer lack of breath forced him to draw back for an instant.

Up from the reddened slough the vanquished beast staggered, a fearful spectacle. Not an instant did he falter, but with his dark blood pouring from his sides, drove straight at his enemy again. The rest is soon told. As the dying stag came on blindly he stumbled and fell squarely on the lowered antlers of his conqueror. Viciously the standing bull strove to extricate his horns from beneath the heavy body of his victim, but he was pinned fast.

Peace on Earth.

Have you ever thought seriously of the meaning of that blessing given to the peacemakers? People are always expecting to get peace in heaven. But you know whatever peace they get there will be ready made. Whatever making of peace they can be blessed for must be on the earth here, not the taking of arms against, but the building of nests amid its "sea of troubles," like the huleyons. Difficult enough, you think. Perhaps so, but I do not see that any of us try. We complain of the want of many things—we want votes, we want liberty, we want amusement, we want money. Which of us feels or knows that he wants peace?—John Ruskin.

The Way of the Wind.

The velocity of the winds is as follows:

Gentle wind (a breeze) traverses 10 feet a second.

Moderate (an easy gale), 16 feet a second.

Violent (a squall), 35 feet a second.

Storm, slight, 43 feet a second; considerable, 49 feet a second; violent, 54 feet a second.

Hurricane, of the temperate zones, 60 feet a second; of the torrid zones, 130 feet to 350 feet a second.

The Strength of Shellfish.

A limpet may appear a poor fishy creature and yet he can pull 1,984 times his own weight in the air and nearly double that in water. The Mediterranean cockle can exert a pull equivalent to 2,071 times his weight. The force required to open an oyster shell is 1,519 times the weight of the oyster without his shell. Were an average man as strong in proportion to his weight he would be able to lift 8,000,000 or 3,000,000 pounds!—London Answers.

He was a smart junior, with a rising reputation for genius in the art of cross examination. Said he to witness, a garrulous but alert old lady:

"How much money had you in your pocket when you say it was picked?"

"Four shillings, two pence and a sovereign in gold," came the reply trippingly on the tongue.

"Did you ever see a sovereign in anything but gold?" was the next question, asked abruptly.

"Yes; I saw the king in a carriage," she answered.

Cause For Thanksgiving.

One fine summer night the whole village was disturbed in its slumbers by the deep tones of Nasreddin giving praise and thanks unto Allah. "What has befallen thee, O Nasreddin," they inquired, "that at this hour of the night thou dost give praise and thanks unto Allah?"

"I lay half sleeping on my divan," replied the dervish, "I looked up and suddenly beheld a white thing flapping by the window. This must be a ghost or demon or some other evil spirit sent by Shaitan to torment true believers, methought, so I seized my bow and drove an arrow through it. I fought with ares, and behold, it was a woman, but my own shirt which she was had transfixed. When she fell she was dead."

The Salt in the Sea.

The saline elements of ocean water may be in part derived from geological formations which consisted largely of lime matter, but it is generally considered that the saltness of the sea is sufficiently accounted for by the deposition of soluble salts from the rivers. Salts of various kinds form part of the constituent ingredients of the earth's soil everywhere. They are washed out by springs and rivulets and carried to the sea by large streams, and as the evaporation which feeds the streams carries none of the dissolved matters back again the tendency is for the salts to accumulate in the sea. The principal saline in the sea is sodium chloride, or common salt, and salts of magnesium and lime.

The Sovereign.

He was a smart junior, with a rising reputation for genius in the art of cross examination. Said he to witness, a garrulous but alert old lady:

"How much money had you in your pocket when you say it was picked?"

"Four shillings, two pence and a sovereign in gold," came the reply trippingly on the tongue.

"Did you ever see a sovereign in anything but gold?" was the next question, asked abruptly.

"Yes; I saw the king in a carriage," she answered.

Are You Sick?

Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength. Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.

It was given up to die by a leading doctor. Got one of Dr. Miles' Nervine bottles and found that Dr. Miles' Nervine did my case. From the very first dose I took I got better. I am better now than I have been for years, and do all my own work on the farm. That's what Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me, and I am glad to recommend it to others.

JOHN JAMES, Elkhart, Ind.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and will authorize you to write for a free copy of it. It is sold by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

CURIOUS MEDICINES.

Prescriptions Which Were Used in the Eighteenth Century.

The following prescriptions, which were published in 1731, show a degree of credulity hardly to be expected from "the father of modern chemistry and brother of the Earl of Cork." The book is said to be written by "the Honorable R. Boyle, Esq., late Fellow of the Royal Society," for the benefit of "those poor Upholders of Families who cannot find or see a Surgeon or a Doctor." Here are a few specimens:

For Convulsions, Especially in Children.—Take Earth-Worms, wash them well in White-wine to cleanse them, but so as that they may not die in the Wine; Then upon hollow Tiles or between them, dry the Worms with a moderate Heat, and no further than that they may be conveniently reduced to Powder; to one Ounce of which add a pretty Number of Grains of Ambergris, both to perfume the Powder (whose Scent of itself is rank) and to make the medicine the more efficacious.

To Prevent the Toothache and Keep the Teeth Sound.—Let the Patient frequently rub his Teeth moderately with the Ashes that remain in Tobacco-Pipes, after the rest of the Body hath been consumed in Smoke; some time after, washing (if need be) his Mouth with fair Water not too cold.

An Uncommon but Experienced Remedy for Dysenterical Fluxes.—Take the Bone or the Thigh of a hanged Man (perhaps another may serve), calcine it to Whiteness, and having purged the Patient with an antimonial medicine, give him 1 Dram of this White Powder for one Dose, in some good Cordial, whether Conserve or Liquor.

A Choice External Remedy for a Sore Throat.—Take Millepedes alive, and sew them up between the Foldings of a piece of Linnen, and apply them to the Throat in the form of a stay, which is to be kept on all Night.

For an Ague.—Take of the Bone called "Platula," of the Knee of a dead Man, and having reduced it to fine Powder, give of it as much as will lie upon a groat or a sixpence for one Dose, in any proper Conserve, or fit Vehicle.—London Lancet.

The Line He Carried.

Bishop Watterson of Nebraska was never at a loss for an answer to impertinent questions. One day he met a man on the train who mistook him for a traveling salesman and started in to quiz the bishop.

"Do you represent a big house?" he began as an opener.

"The very biggest on earth," replied the bishop, with a twinkle in his eye.

"What's the name of the firm?" continued the questioner.

"Lord and Church," smiled the bishop pleasantly.

"Hum! Lord and Church! Never 'Oh, yes, indeed—branch houses anywhere?'"

"Oh, yes, indeed—branch houses all over the world."

"Hum! That's queer! Never heard of them. Is it boots or shoes?"

"Neither."

"Oh, I see—dry goods, I suppose."

"Well, yes; they do call my sermons that, sometimes."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Took Her at Her Word.

A woman came into the general store with a jar of butter. She desired to exchange it for another jar of butter. In churning her butter she had discovered a mouse in the churn.

"It didn't injure the butter," she said to the storekeeper, "and to any one who did not know the circumstance it would taste all right."

Taking the woman at her word, the merchant carried her jar into the back room, transferred her butter to another jar, and the gratified customer took back her mouse butter with a thousand thanks for the accommodation.

There is a great deal of needless trouble in the world on account of squeamish sentiment.—Milwaukee Journal.

Cupid's Effective Darts.

Once upon a time Cupid called on Vulcan.

"Friend Vulcan," he said, "things have been a little slow with me of late, and I have been missing a lot of marks. I want you to make me a new lot of darts and tip each one of them with gold."

Several days afterward Mercury appeared in a great hurry before Vulcan with this note from Cupid:

Dear Vulcan—Those leaden darts didn't miss once. Make me 1000 more gold tipped ones at once. I am doing the greatest work of my life.

Moral.—Aim is made more effective by the judicious use of gold.—New York Herald.

A TISPY DUKE'S PRANK.

The Story of How Mrs. Connolly Became Lady Michael.

In former times there used to be a certain Duke of Richmond, then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who belonged to the hall fellow well met species. With his boon companions it was his almost daily habit to go to a certain fashionable bar at Bray, kept by one Michael Connolly. There much wine was consumed during his incumbency of the lord lieutenantship, and many and wild were the nights that the Duke and his friends spent at Michael's. One night in London, and it was said his wife was the best to be found within the confines of the Emerald Isle. The Duke of Richmond said so, and he ought to have known, as he had eaten tons of the one and imbibed tons of the other. Connolly's cooking and Connolly's wine were popular themes of conversation with his lordship, and he was not niggardly with his praise of either. Wine is a great leveler of ranks, and so it fell out one night that the duke, carried away by his admiration for Connolly's talents in kitchen and taproom, committed an egregious, amusing mistake. The night in question had been an even more than usually wet one at the inn at Bray, and the duke, the innkeeper himself and all of the duke's companions were lost to all sense of either proportion or the eternal fitness of things.

Therefore no one thought it strange when the duke sent for mine host and, after a speech of praise of his viands, the way in which they were prepared and especially of his wine cellar, bade him kneel. Then, striking him across the shoulders, he said, "Rise, Sir Michael Connolly!" And Sir Michael rose amid the rapturous applause of those present. It seemed quite the proper caper then, but the next morning, as it came back to still further jar the aching head of the duke, it bore a somewhat different aspect, and the principal question that agitated the duke's mind was how he was to get out of the scrape.

Connolly was summoned and, in the faint hope that the ceremony had made no impression, asked if he remembered aught that happened the night previous. Sir Michael did and manifested a disquieting determination to hang on to his newly acquired title. But, as have lesser and greater men before and since, he fell a willing victim to bribery and finally agreed not to press his claim to knighthood. The price was heavy, but not too high to pay for the suppression of a tale that would make his grace of Richmond the laughingstock of London, and so the duke was turning, satisfied with his morning's work, when the late Sir Michael dashed his self congratulations to the four winds.

"Yes, your grace, I'll keep quiet," he said as he jingled the price of his title in his pocket. "But?" thoughtfully—"that it will take more than the likes of me to keep my wife, Lady Michael Connolly, quiet about the matter." And it did. Michael was right. She was Lady Michael to her friends from that day on and always laid claim to the title. The duke was the laughingstock of London, as he had feared, but a reformed man as well, for he dared take no further risks.—London Tatler.

This Week Opens a Coat and Suit Sale of Absorbing Interest

This important event will be doubly interesting because it opens our First authoritative autumn Showing of New Fall Coats—while to it is added a Special Sale of Fine Suits at reductions that will give more power to the Swift selling that has marked the days in our Woman's Suit Department This Fall. Our wonderful success in selling suits this season is best shown by the fact that our buyer has been obliged to go to the Eastern markets twice during October to buy more Suits to continue our unprecedented Suit business. He has just returned from his most successful trip of all. Cash Buying Power—combined with special business arrangements This Store maintains with half a dozen of the Largest Manufacturers in New York of high-class women's garments—enables him to procure styles—Of the Kind That Are Scarce—at prices that will create a stir in Springfield.

The styles of these Coats and Suits Were Made Expressly for Us, to designs drawn up as the result of a sound understanding of Springfield women's taste—after months of careful catering to a critical trade. Thus we have created numerous Kinnane & Sullivan Suit and Coat Styles which will be remarked this fall for their distinctive Quality, Simplicity and Style wherever they are seen.

This Special Display the coming week of these new Coats and Suits is in itself worth coming far to see. But the attraction for the greater number will be The Opening Special Prices—which, to women who appreciate good styles, good materials and good values, will be convincing proof that we are selling the best garments to be found in Springfield for the money.

WHEN YOU BUY FENCE

It's a mighty good idea to consider quality before price. There's a lot of cheap fence on the market, but you must remember when you buy fencing at a cheap price you get just what you pay for—poorly made, unserviceable fence—nothing more.

PEERLESS WIRE FENCE

will outlast fence made from cheap, soft wire, twice over, and the famous Peerless structure the makers of Peerless, the strongest fence known. Make your dealer furnish you Peerless. He can get it for you.
